Do you or someone you know enjoy being creative? Do you or someone you know enjoy expressing yourself through storytelling? If so, join us at Renton Veterans Center - a hub for military families.

Veterans and their families and friends are invited to weekly theater workshops exploring improvisation, movement, and voice for self-expression, character exploration, and ensemble work. Build community, and comradery.

No performance background is necessary -- workshops are fun and engaging and open to all ages and abilities. The most important 'rule' is just to be you!
